

Position: Assistant Distribution Manager

Location: Baltimore, MD

Job Description:

In the Assistant Distribution Manager role you will directly oversee up to 15 distribution employees setting out weekly, daily, and monthly goals for the department.

- Will work cross-functionally in areas such as Shipping, Receiving, Picking, Packing, and Inventory Control
- Take on responsibilities such as coaching, training, and mentoring direct reports under them
- Having all employees following and well-trained on safety protocols
- Must come from a fast-paced manufacturing or distribution environment
- Develop practical solutions to problems without sacrificing quality
- Meet department's daily, weekly and monthly goals of the distribution center
- Achieve high performance standards while coaching and training employees on best practices of our business
- Analyze opportunities for growth, cutting costs, reducing damages and improving efficiencies
- Continually improve productivity targets and process improvements
- Lead employees to fulfil their potential