

Job Title: Architectural Project Manager

Location: Charleston, SC

The Architectural Project Manager will have 5-10 years' experience in all phases of design and construction looking to expand their career within a dynamic and diverse studio environment. Successful candidates will have experience on a wide range of project types and will be able to work independently as well as in a team environment while completing multiple deadlines simultaneously. Preferred candidates shall have:

- B. Arch or M. Arch degree from an accredited school with demonstrated plan for achieving licensure or shall have achieved registration within last 3 years.
- Technical proficiency of REVIT and Adobe Creative Suite
- Possess excellent communication and technical architectural detailing skills in all project phases from Conceptual Design through Construction Administration.
- Ability to collaborate with other professionals in the office and with consulting engineers
- LEED accreditation or exhibited interest in achieving credentials.
- Demonstrated experience on wide range of project types including commercial, institutional, educational and residential.